Logging into Canvas

First time Canvas users:

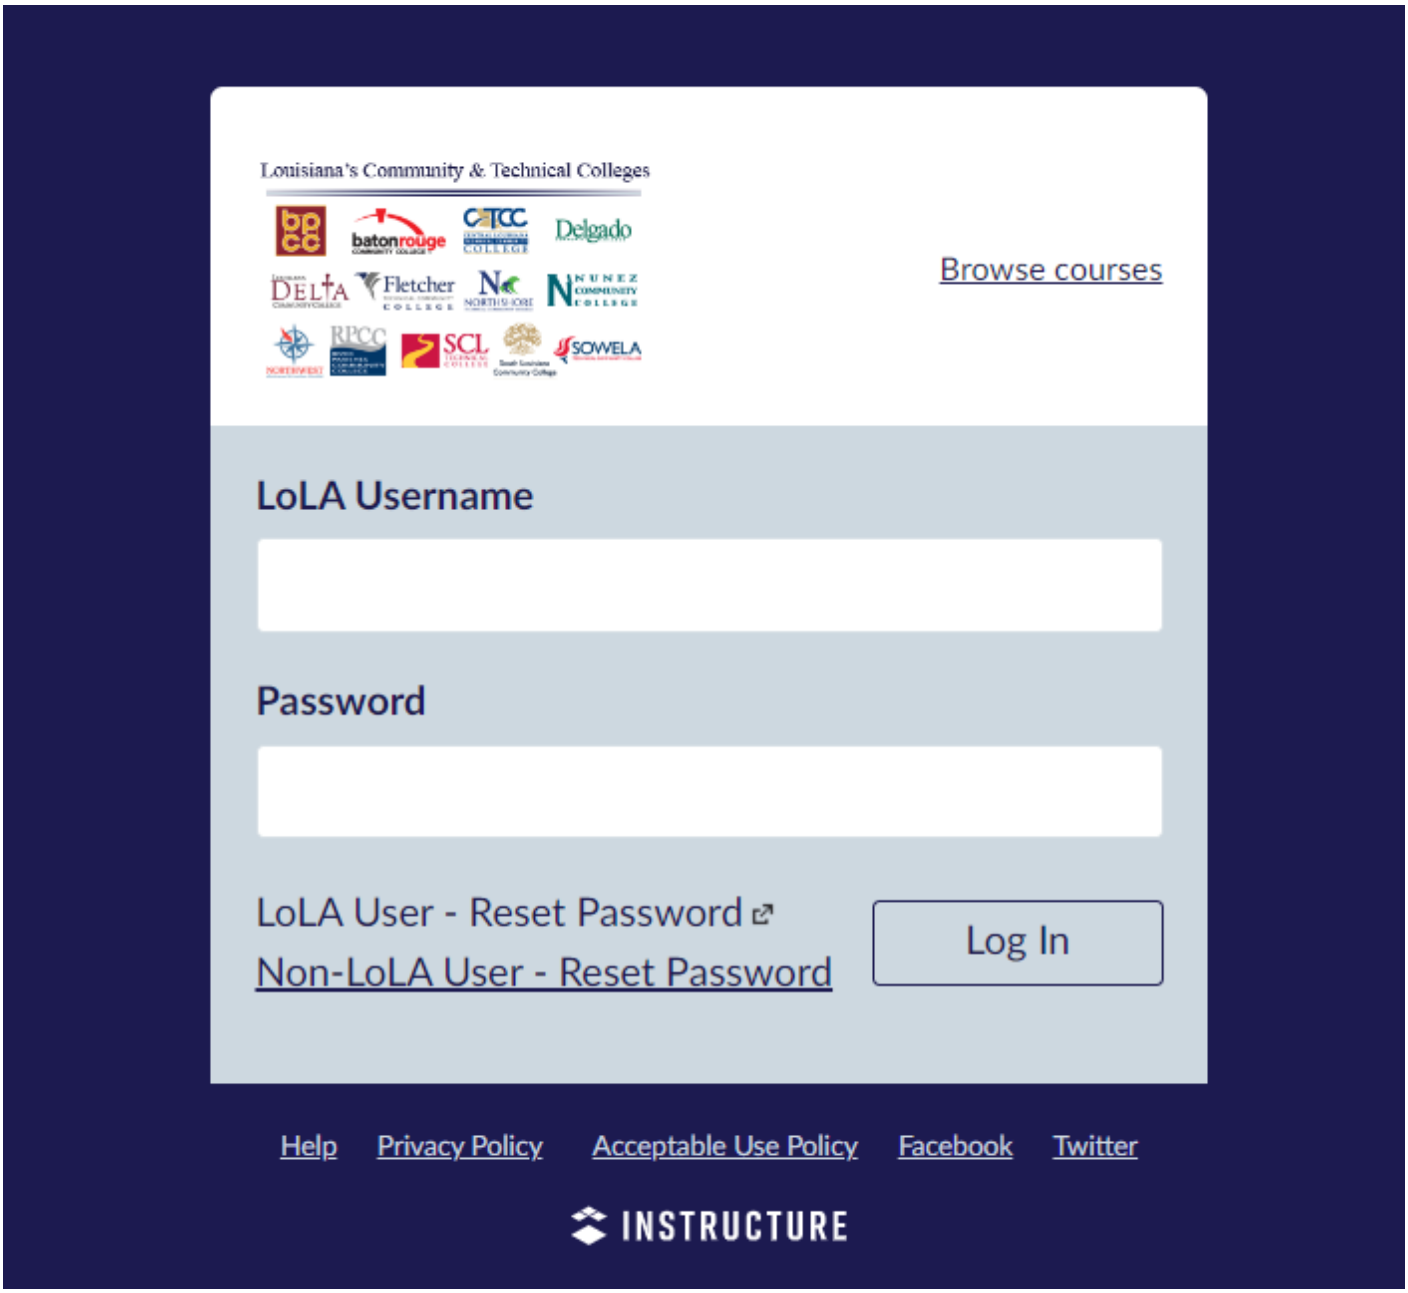

Once you have registered for courses for the first time, your Canvas account will be automatically generated.

LoLA and Canvas login information is the same:

If you already have your LoLA username and have created a password, your LoLA login information is the same for Canvas! If you change your LoLA password, it changes your Canvas password as well.

Logging into Canvas:

Go to https://northshorecollege.instructure.com/login/ldap

Notice:

Your LoLA username and password is the same for Canvas, so once you change your password on LoLA it will change it for your Canvas account.

Your student email is NOT the same as your LoLA and Canvas accounts.
