

Logging into Canvas

First time Canvas users:

Once you have registered for courses for the first time, your Canvas account will be automatically generated.

LoLA and Canvas login information is the same:

If you already have your LoLA username and have created a password, your LoLA login information is the same for Canvas! If you change your LoLA password, it changes your Canvas password as well.

Logging into Canvas:

Go to <https://northshorecollege.instructure.com/login/ldap>
